Creating a Global Media Center
A Workshop for K-12 Librarians & Technology Specialists
April 18-19, 2013

Co-sponsored by
UNC School of Education and UNC Libraries

This 1½ day workshop will survey emerging technologies and media content used to bring the world to North Carolina’s schools. The program is designed to help K-12 school librarians and technology facilitators better understand our interconnected world by learning with and through technology. The workshop will also offer resources and hands-on strategies to increase and improve content, collection, and integration of global themes in the media center. 1.5 CEUs will be awarded for completion of the program.

Cost: $175 per person

Location: Carolina Center for Educational Excellence
UNC at Chapel Hill

*Space is limited to the first 45 participants, so register today!
Due to the popularity of this program, participants are only allowed to attend once*
