

An illustration featuring a soldier in silhouette, wearing a helmet and carrying a rifle, walking from left to right. He is carrying a large, wavy red banner that dominates the center of the image. The banner has the text "Peace, Justice, and the League of Nations" written in white, bold, sans-serif font. In the background, there are stylized white clouds and several parachutes falling from the sky. The ground is depicted with simple, dark grey shapes representing buildings or terrain.

Peace, Justice, and the League of Nations

This document is supplemental material to Peace, Justice and the League of Nations, a lesson plan created by Denise-Marie Copeland of The Center of Applied Sciences and Technology as part of the 2022-2023 UNC World View Global Fellows Program.

For more information about the program, please visit <http://worldview.unc.edu/>.

Objectives

At the end of this lesson, you will be able to:

1. Identify the League of Nations as a group intended to resolve the international conflict that resulted from WWI.
2. Evaluate whether the League of Nations was able to effectively resolve conflict.
3. Advocate for a position using historical evidence and logical and ethical reasoning.

Essential Question

At the end of this lesson you will write a response to the following question:

How effective was the League of Nations as a Peace and Justice Institution?

-Armistice-

arms

a stopping

This document is supplemental material to Peace, Justice and the League of Nations, a lesson plan created by Denise-Marie Copeland of The Center of Applied Sciences and Technology as part of the 2022-2023 UNC World View Global Fellows Program. For more information about the program, please visit <http://worldview.unc.edu/>.

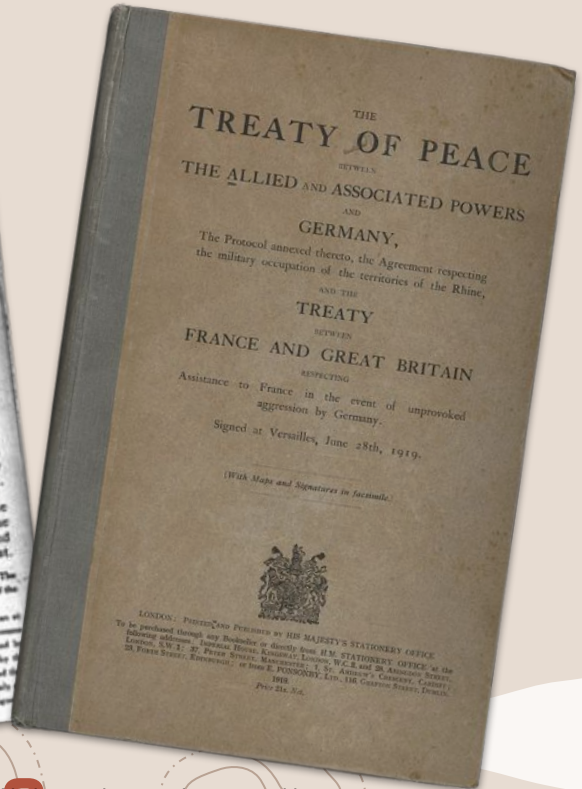

November 11, 1918

-Paris Peace Conference-

This document is supplemental material to 1919 & 1920 Peace, Justice and the League of Nations, a lesson plan created by Denise-Marie Copeland of The Center of Applied Sciences and Technology as part of the 2022-2023 UNC World View Global Fellows Program. For more information about the program, please visit <http://worldview.unc.edu/>.

-Treaty of Versailles-

This document is supplemental material to Peace, Justice and the League of Nations, a lesson plan created by Denise-Marie Copeland of The Center of Applied Sciences and Technology as part of the 2022-2023 UNC World View Global Fellows Program. For more information about the program, please visit <http://worldview.unc.edu/>.

CREDITS: This presentation template was created by Slidesgo, including icons by Flaticon, infographics & images by Freepik

Denise-Marie Copeland
The Center of Applied Sciences and Technology
Brunswick County Schools
dcopeland@bcswan.net

Images available in the public domain accessed from:

Justice Headlines | The front page of the Yorkshire Te... | Flickr File:WORLD WAR 1. Soon after the armistice, German troops entered the Province of Lim, Bestanddeelnr 158-0831.jpg - Wikimedia Commons

File:William Orpen – The Signing of Peace in the Hall of Mirrors, Versailles 1919, Ausschnitt.jpg - Wikimedia Commons

Q&A: What Does the Versailles Treaty Teach Us About the Aftermath of War? | University of Denver

This document is supplemental material to Peace, Justice and the League of Nations, a lesson plan created by Denise-Marie Copeland of The Center of Applied Sciences and Technology as part of the 2022-2023 UNC World View Global Fellows Program. For more information about the program, please visit <http://worldview.unc.edu/>.