6-8 credible scholarly sources, including 3-4 scholarly journal articles, that express multiple viewpoints about the issue you have selected concise annotations, for each source, that follow the rhetorical precis model

proper APA formatting

Assignment Description

The purpose of this project is to investigate a United Nations Sustainable Development Goal and fully understand its origins, concerns, and consequences. Select a goal that you are personally interested in, as it will make the research more enjoyable.

Think about the topics that are currently problems in the world that fall under your chosen goal; you will research and analyze the topic you choose.

Questions you may want to consider:

- What problems are people, plants, and/or animals experiencing in the world today?
- What problems have experts been unable to solve?
- What conflicts have experts been unable to resolve?
- What important questions have experts been unable to answer?

You will need to find appropriate credible and reliable sources for this assignment.

Your research will showcase sources that demonstrate what experts have to say about this topic.

Annotations

Your annotations should be organized in alphabetical order. Each annotation should include, in this order:

1. a proper citation in APA format with hanging indents
2. an annotation that follows the Rhetorical Precis model *see reading link provided in this module.

Annotations should not include quotes from the sources.
