

1. What is the title of your article?
2. What was one interesting fact you learned from this article?
3. Who was the marginalized group in your article?
4. What is the reason for lack of access to fresh water?
5. What ways are the government or the community working to have access to clean water?